

For Immediate Release
October 8, 2009

Dundee, New York – Veraisons Restaurant is offering a skillfully prepared Harvest Dinner on Saturday, October 31, 2009, accepting reservations between 5:00 PM and 9:00 PM. The five course meal will be prepared with seasonal foods produced by local farmers. Each course will be paired with Glenora Wine Cellars' award winning wines; all for $39.95 per person, plus tax and gratuity. Advance reservations are necessary to allow for the perfect preparation and presentation. For more information on the Harvest Dinner at Veraisons, visit www.glenora.com or contact a reservation specialist at 1.800.243.5513.

Veraisons Restaurant is located within Glenora Wine Cellars' 40-acre campus just 8 miles north of Watkins Glen. The restaurant is open year round with seating that offers panoramic views of vineyards and Seneca Lake. Executive Chef, Orlando Rodriguez, is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America. Chef Orlando's cuisine focuses on regional foods, sourcing local producers for the menu items from a variety of local farmers that are located in the heart of Finger Lakes Wine Country.

The perfect wine and food pairing sets the stage for a wonderful evening, combined with the warm and delightful atmosphere that will surround you in the dining room. Come and enjoy really fine food and wine on Halloween at Veraisons.
